

Mikisew Membership – Application Form

Thank you for your application. All information is confidential and used only in processing your request. Please ensure you complete all of the required fields and include any requested documentation. Your application will not be processed until all necessary information and the accompanying documentation is provided.

Please note: To apply for Mikisew membership, you must first be registered with Indigenous Services Canada (ISC). For more information, visit the Government of Canada website and complete your Application forms for Indian status and status cards. If you require assistance contact ISC at 780.495.2773. New members are not entitled to Mikisew payments allotted to previous members (e.g., cow and ploughs).

Due to the Privacy Act we are unable to give out treaty numbers for family members and friends.

The Membership Departments prefers emails for all requests, including appointments. Elders who do not have access to email may call our office at 780.697.3747.
