Royal Canadian Mounted Police Youth Camps General Information

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police Youth Camps will be held at the RCMP Headquarter in Edmonton, Alberta. Thirty youths from across the Alberta will attend each camp. The camps will run Sunday to Friday, during the summer 2023 (date to be announced) . The camp is open to any youths between the ages of sixteen to nineteen.

The camps offer youths a chance to find out what it's like to be a police officer in training. All students will be selected based on their academic achievement, citizenship and interest in police work. There will be a wide variety of activities planned for the students to observe and participate in during their week at K Division HQ. These activities may include: drill, fitness, police defensive tactics, forensics, Major Crime Unit, Emergency Response Team and much more!

In this application package, there is information regarding the program. There are also several forms that must be completed to apply. Please read each page over carefully with your parent or guardian and sign each form as indicated. Return the signed forms by mail to address provided.

Once all the forms are completed and submitted, students will be contacted by a member of the RCMP and may also be interviewed. Once selection of the students is made everyone who applied will be notified if they were successful or not.

Travel and Transportation:

Transportation to and from the participants residential area to the K Division HQ will be taken care of by the RCMP.

Once at the RCMP K division HQ transportation to and from different locations will be done via RCMP vans.

Accommodations:

All students will be staying at the RCMP K Division HQ. Each student will have their own room with a private bathroom. All bedding, pillows and towels will be provided.

Meals:

Meals will be provided at no cost to the students at the Division Mess. There is an assortment of hot meals, sandwiches, cereals, salads, fruits and desserts for each meal. Special meals can be prepared for anyone with special dietary restrictions. (Please indicate on medical form)

The Course:

The syllabus has not been finalized at this point. Class times are dependent upon the schedule of the units coming to meet the candidates. However, topics and activities will include defensive tactics, fitness, drill and classroom presentations by different units within the RCMP.

Clothing:

You will be issued some uniform items for use at while at the RCMP K Division HQ. A cap, pants, t-shirts and accoutrements will be issued on the first morning. You will wear a uniform and function as a troop during this course. You will need regular clothing in the evening.

Please make sure you bring the following items with you:

- Fitness Clothes (gym pants/shorts, t-shirts, socks) you will be attending fitness classes and defensive tactics classes
- running shoes
- bathing suit
- Clothing for the evenings
- You will also be required to bring personal hygiene products, ex: shampoo, soap, toothbrush, toothpaste as they are not provided by the RCMP K division HQ.
- For females with long hair, you will need elastics, bobby pins, hairspray etc. as you are required to wear your hair tied up during class.

This is a opportunity of a lifetime to learn about the RCMP and the different units.

Good Luck!

MEDICAL QUESTIONNAIRE

APPLICANT'S FULL NAME:

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY:

Police officers must maintain a high level of fitness to perform their duties effectively and professionally. At the RCMP Youth Camps, you will be expected to be in good condition and injury free.

The physical components of the RCMP Youth Camps include a conditioning program, participation in team sport games, and simulations of police scenarios, involving chasing, controlling and apprehending suspects.

The students will be exposed to a simulated physical ability requirement evaluation, which is currently required for RCMP entry. This is a physically rigorous test. Completion of this test requires participants to perform at near maximum heart rates, challenge upper body strength, muscular endurance and coordination skills.

It is the recommendation of the RCMP Youth Camps to undergo a medical examination by a physician if the applicant or the guardians have any concerns.

Read and honestly answer each of the following questions. Any information regarding injuries must be volunteered. If it is not, and the injury surfaces during the activities at the RCMP Youth Camps, the student may be expelled.

1. List any injuries or illnesses affecting physical activity.

2. Have you been under a doctor's care for any reason within the preceding two (2) years?
Yes / No If yes, explain:

3. Do you have a bone or joint problem that could be aggravated by physical activity? Yes / No If yes, explain:

4. Do you feel pain in your chest when you exercise physically?

5. Do you experience dizziness, or do you ever lose consciousness?

6. Are you currently on medication: Yes / No If yes, explain:

7. Do you have any dietary restrictions?
